Lewis-Price & Associates Helps Project GiveBack Serve Thanksgiving Meals to Those in Need Around Greater Washington Region

MCLEAN, Va., Nov. 23, 2020 – Lewis-Price & Associates, Inc., a leading provider of mission-critical talent, training and IT services to federal government agencies, this week helped support Project GiveBack's Thanksgiving Distribution Community Service Project of providing essential holiday food items and face masks to nearly 2,700 families. The needs this year in the community have grown due to COVID and other economic challenges, and the project was able to support 200 additional families over the previous season.

“Our team takes great pride and honor in being able to support this fantastic program and event,” said Ken Coleman, founder and CEO of Lewis-Price. “The team at Project GiveBack is providing a wonderful service for our local communities and we are honored to be a part of helping so many families in need throughout our community.”

The mission of Project GiveBack is to provide a way for companies and professionals to give back to the communities where they work and live by coordinating programs that benefit less fortunate individuals and families, with a focus on especially serving the needs of children. It is the intent of the organization to uplift communities around the United States mentally, spiritually and economically. Project GiveBack supports multiple programs including a children’s toy drive, children’s Easter celebration, back to school backpacks and supplies, computer sponsor program and more.
